

Gentlemen, There is no need to change the rules about bandwidth on any mode allowed under part 97. The system is not broken; therefore please try not to fix it. Here in the North East bands sometimes get crowded and unless everyone was ordered to use CW. Narrowing the bandwidth of any mode would not cure the problem. More people will come into the service as rules change and as over crowding become apparent, more frequencies will be needed, not a bandwidth change